(1) Excluding one-off gain on the sale of the Asian Consumer business in prior year

Raw material price development

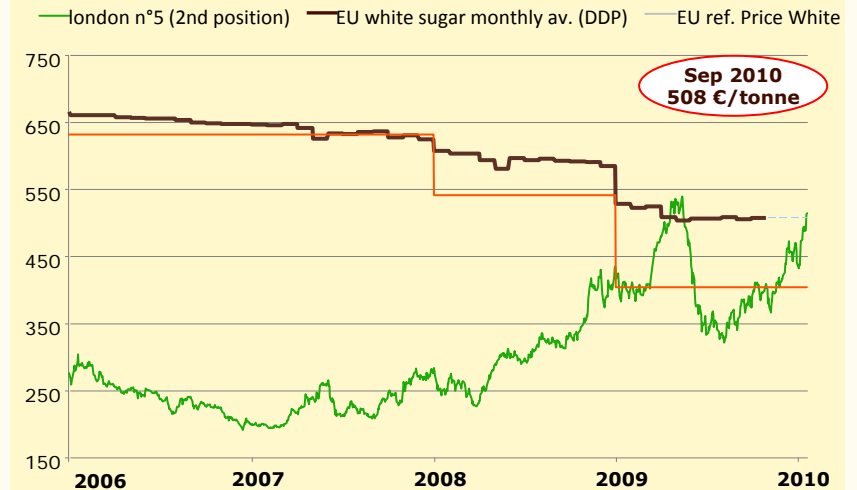

Raw materials at high levels, volatility increased

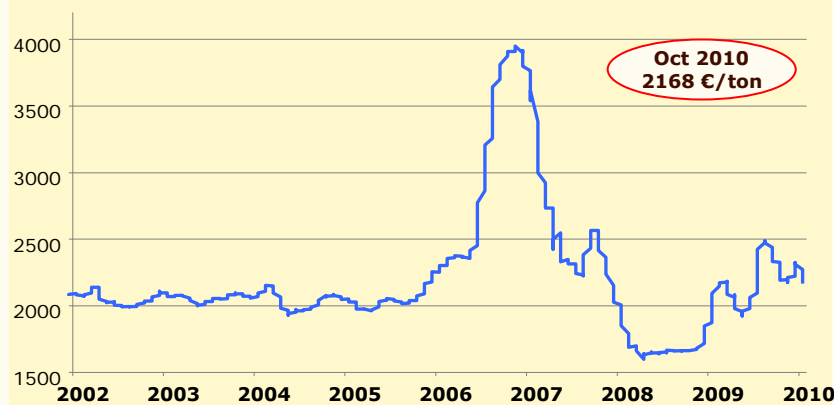

London Cocoa 2nd Position in GBP/tonne

Average price for white sugar EUR/tonne

Skimmed milk powder prices EUR/tonne

- ▶ BC through its "cost plus" model passes on the cost of raw materials to customers (80% of the business)
- ▶ Cocoa price reached 33-year high in July 2010, came down, but still at high levels
- ▶ World sugar price increased. BC mainly sources locally, EU prices were stable, somewhat declining
- ▶ Milk powder prices volatile

Raw material price development

Low combined cocoa ratio, recently improving

Cocoa powder-butter combined ratio* – European ratios 6 months forward against LIFFE

- ▶ Combined cocoa ratio* was unfavorable in H1 2009/2010, there was a neutral effect in H2 2009/2010. Combined ratio has recently recovered, however driven by powder not butter.
- ▶ Low combined cocoa ratios = negative impact on BC cocoa (semi-finished products) business

Gross Profit – August 2010

Volume growth and operational improvements partly offset low combined ratio and negative FX

EBIT – August 2010

Double digit EBIT growth before scope and negative currency effects

in mCHF

Region Europe Strong performance amidst challenging market conditions

Sales volume (tonnes)

EBIT (CHF million)

+8.3% in local currencies

Europe

Food Manufacturers (FM), Gourmet and Consumer

57.7% of total sales volume

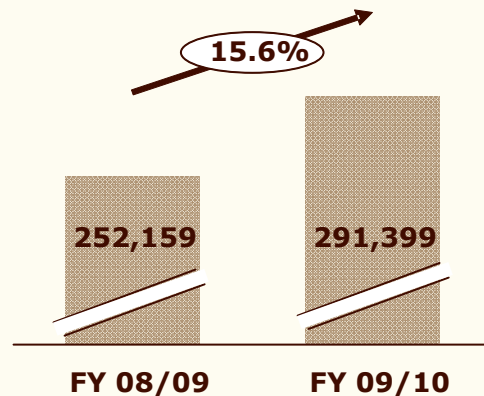

- Market demand in Western Europe recovered, although UK and France are still slightly negative, Eastern Europe market still not yet on a positive growth path
- In FM strong growth of compounds and fillings, as well as our decorations business and an increasing demand for nut and specialties products
- In Gourmet we saw market share gains, as a result of increased focus, organizational optimization and integration of Chocovic and Eurogran
- Volume of our Consumer Products business slightly decreased
- Positive EBIT growth due to efficiency gains, slight margin improvements and strict cost control

Region Americas

A strong top-line translates into profit improvement

Sales volume (tonnes)

EBIT (CHF million)

+6.3% in local currencies

Americas

Food Manufacturers & Gourmet

22.3% of total sales volume

- Chocolate consumption in the US saw low levels in early 2010 and rebounded strongly in last quarter; overall the US chocolate market grew by 2.7%. In Brazil, the chocolate market increased 3.5% vs. prior year
- The foodservice segment showed a modest recovery, at home consumption increased (bakeries), as well as more casual dining.
- Highly competitive market in medium sized national customers
- Food Manufacturers volume grew at double-digit driven by Corporate accounts, leading to an overall gain in market share
- Our Gourmet & Specialties business out-performed due to substantial growth in higher-end import brands such as Cacao Barry and Callebaut

Region Asia - Pacific

A strong growth story continues

Sales volume (tonnes)

EBIT (CHF million)

+87.6 % in local currencies*

*Excluding one-off gain on sale of Asian Consumer business in prior year

Asia-Pacific

Food Manufacturers & Gourmet

3.7% of total sales volume

- Chocolate consumption in China, India, Indonesia and Malaysia showed overall significant growth, while Japan did not grow
- We achieved double digit growth with industrial as well as artisanal customers
- Multinational as well as local customers showed very good performance, although exports from China are still affected by the past food scandals
- Gourmet business showed a strong demand for European brands as well as for the local brands both showed double-digit growth in almost every market
- Capacity utilization improved strongly, therefore we had better coverage of our fixed costs and dramatic improvement of EBIT

Global Sourcing & Cocoa

Creating value through our core ingredients

Sales volume (tonnes)

EBIT (CHF million)

+5.4 % in local currencies

Global Sourcing & Cocoa

Cocoa semi-finished products

16.3% of total sales volume

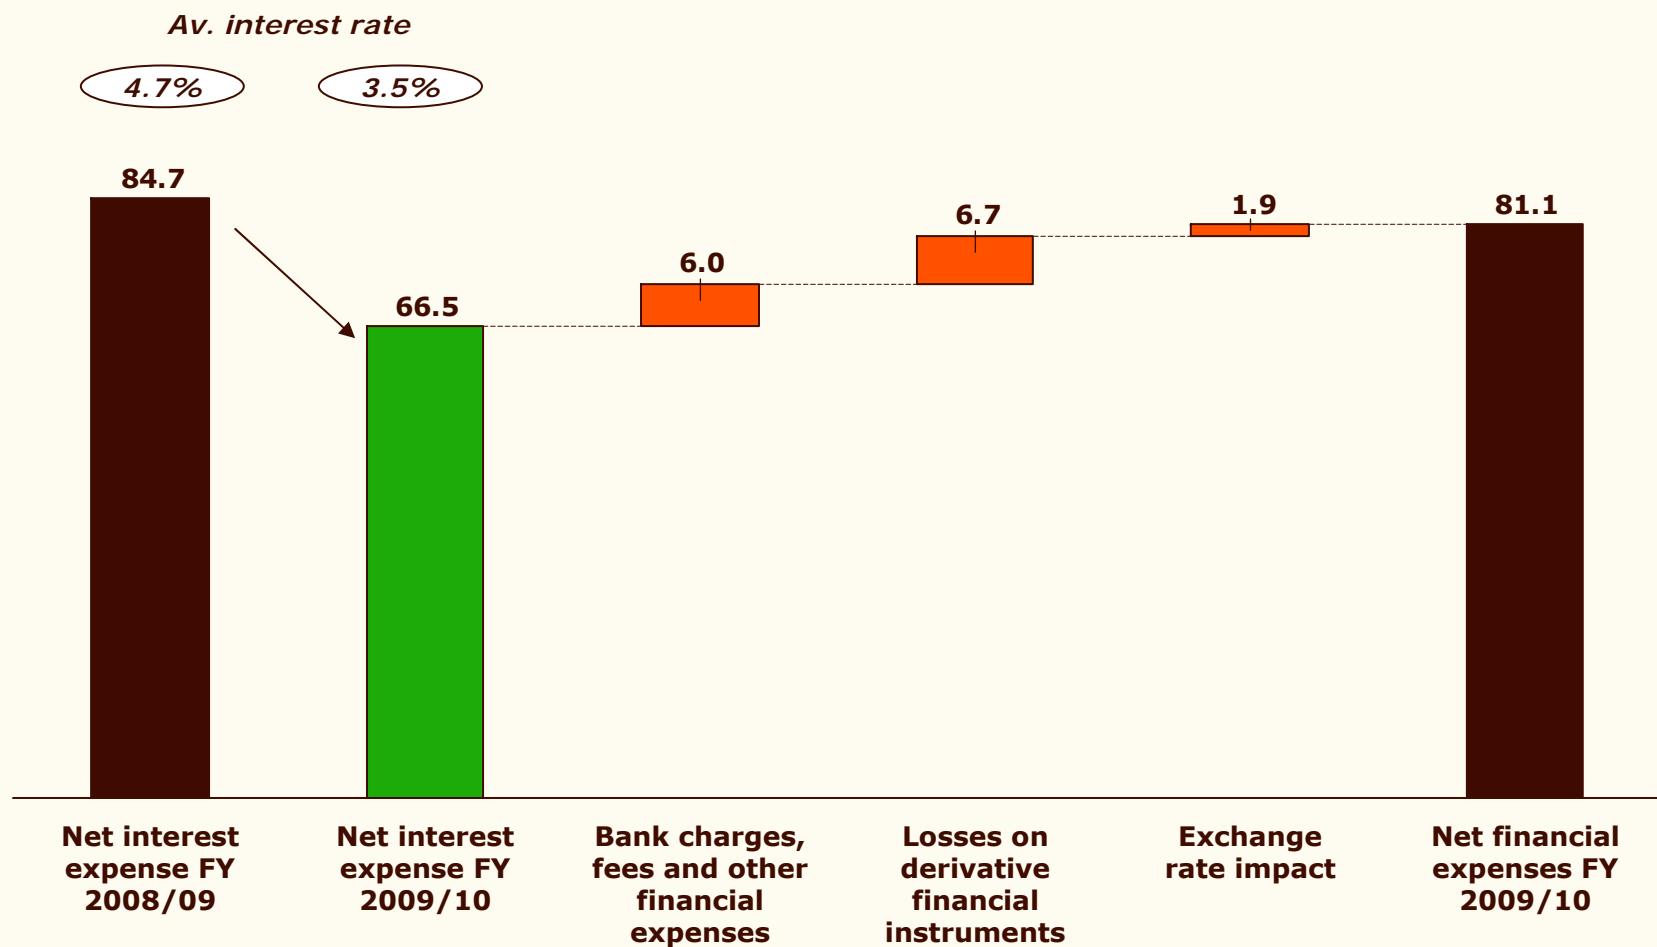

- Volatile cocoa markets and new historical highs driven by fears of a poor crop and heavy speculative buying
- Strongly increased the volume of cocoa products sold to third-party customers by 8.2%. Especially North and South America performed above-average
- High demand in cocoa powder, mainly in the bakery, ice cream and beverage industry, as well as for compounds in chocolate confectionery
- Negative impact from low butter ratio, offset by volume growth and good performance in developing regions
- Higher demand for certified products

Net Financial Expenses Substantially improved due to lower interest rates

 Paid by way of nominal share value repayment

Working Capital Positive impact from our Capital Excellence program CHF 114 million

in mCHF

Average of the year vs. prior year

- Inventories (days sales in inventory)
Reduction considering volume growth thanks to a better planning. Overall reduction of 11.7 days of sales coverage (excl. FX and raw material price impact)
- Receivables (days sales outstanding)
We managed to reduce the average days outstanding by 1.4; through strong focus on reducing overdues and optimizing the collection process including electronic invoicing /EDI
- Payables (days payable outstanding)
Only marginally improved. Difficult to renegotiate existing contracts and payment terms. Supply chain financing should clearly improve our payable situation next year.

Fine-tuning our strategy

Growth Strategy

Fine-tuning our strategy
 “Expansion” in different dimensions

Geography

- Drive consolidation and grow profitably in mature FM markets
- Achieve full potential in recently entered emerging markets
- Further expand in new emerging markets

Outsourcing & Strategic Partnerships

- Strengthen our current partnerships
- Implementation of Kraft deal
- New outsourcing deals with local/regional players

Gourmet & Specialties Products

- Accelerate growth of Gourmet & Specialties Products business

Fine-tuning our strategy on Gourmet

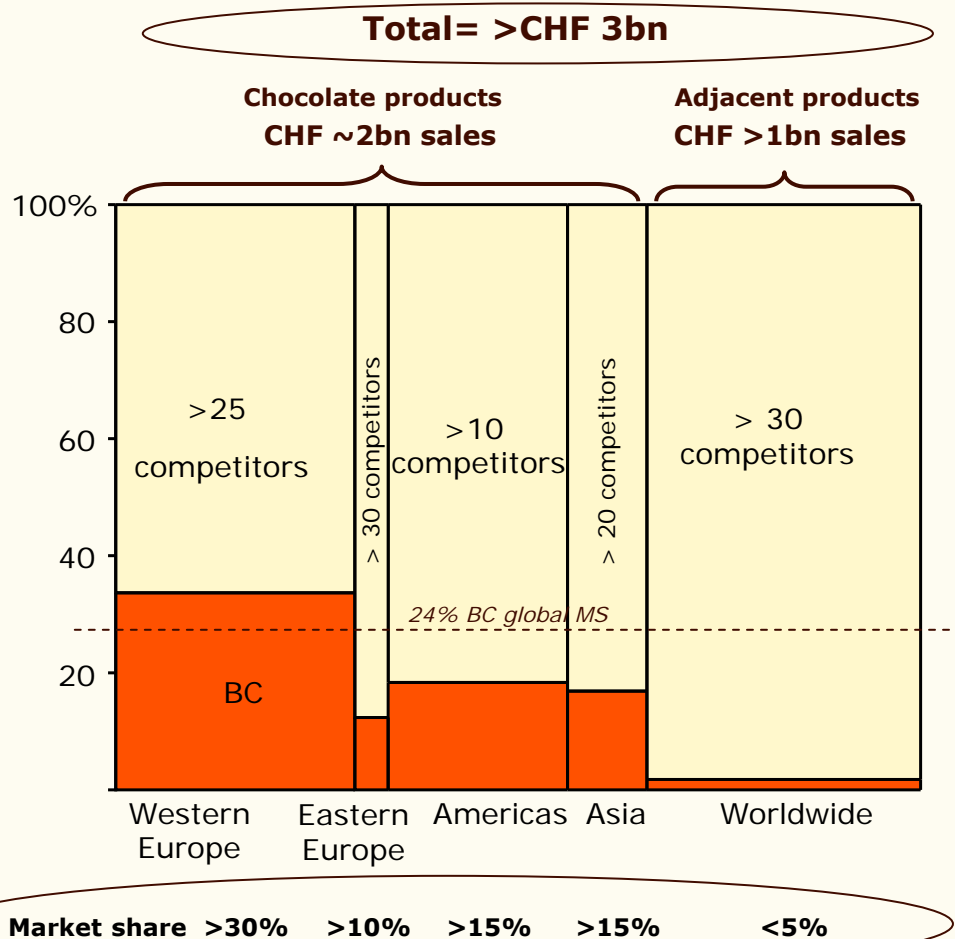

Goal: Strengthen our Global Gourmet Leadership

Fine-tuning our strategy on Gourmet Global Gourmet market

Gourmet global market and BC presence

Market

- ▶ Highly fragmented market with more than 100'000 end-customers
- ▶ Three main segments:
 - ▶ Confectioners: artisanal chocolate shops
 - ▶ BAPA: bakery and pastry shops
 - ▶ HORECA: restaurants, hotels and caterers
- ▶ Main competitors: Valrhona, Felchlin, Belcolade and many local players

Key trends

- ▶ Consolidation (distribution, end-customers)
- ▶ Differentiation
- ▶ Convenience

Fine-tuning our strategy on Gourmet

Our business today

- ▶ Global Market leader
 - ▶ Sales Revenue more than CHF 700 mio (24% market share)
 - ▶ Present in all major markets, through own sales office or agent
 - ▶ We sell via different channels: distributors, wholesalers, cash & carry and directly
- ▶ Brands:
 - ▶ Callebaut: "Finest Belgium chocolate"
 - ▶ Cacao Barry: "French chocolate"
 - ▶ More than ten locally rooted labels
- ▶ Products: >500 recipes in chocolate, plus adjacent products
- ▶ 13 Chocolate academies; ~20,000 people attended our trainings or demos per year

Fine-tuning our strategy on Gourmet

Six actions for accelerated Gourmet growth in the future

1. Sharpen focus on two global brands Cacao Barry and Callebaut
2. Move from a product to a segment focus
3. Increase adjacent product offering
4. Accelerate geographical expansion
5. Growth through acquisitions
6. Dedicated Gourmet organization with own P&L / "Independent but interdependent"

Decorations
(Confectioners)

Fillings
(BAPA)

Frozen (Foodservice)

Fine-tuning our strategy on Gourmet Gourmet growth target

- ▶ Double our sales volume until 2014/2015
(Combination of organic growth and acquisitions)

Outlook

Financial targets confirmed and extended

- ▶ Three-year growth targets for 2009/10 – 2011/12 extended by one year through 2012/13

- ▶ Annual growth targets on average* for 2009/10 through 2012/13:
 - Volumes: 6-8%
 - EBIT: at least in line with volume growth

* Our view for the 2009-2013 period reflects current economic forecasts for the markets we operate in as well as internal developments and their assumed impact on our performance, barring any major unforeseen events and based on local currencies.
