Squeeze-out at Stollwerck AG temporarily halted

- Lawsuit against the squeeze-out of minority shareholders
- Stollwerck will contest the lawsuit
- Integration process not affected

Zurich/Switzerland, Cologne/Germany, June 17, 2003 – A lawsuit has been filed against the resolution to squeeze out the minority shareholders in exchange for cash compensation of EUR 295.00 per share which was passed by the annual general meeting of Stollwerck AG shareholders on April 30, 2003. The approved squeeze-out of minority shareholders has thus been temporarily halted. Stollwerck AG will use all legal means at its disposal to contest this lawsuit so as to expedite the implementation of the general meeting's resolution.

Barry Callebaut AG regrets the delay caused by the rescissory action. Chairman of the Board Andreas Schmid notes: "Challenging squeeze-out resolutions has, unfortunately, become commonplace. Not a single squeeze-out has been ultimately blocked by these legal challenges, so they are not in the best interests of minority shareholders because they have to wait for an indefinite period until they receive their cash compensation and a functioning market for their shares is no longer available."

Integration proceeding as planned

The integration of Stollwerck AG into the Barry Callebaut Group is not affected by the rescissory action; it is proceeding on track and should be completed in the summer of 2004.

Background information on the squeeze-out

The Swiss company Barry Callebaut AG acquired 96.10% of Stollwerck AG's shares through its German subsidiary Van Houten Beteiligungs AG & Co. KG in August 2002. In September 2002, Van Houten Beteiligungs AG & Co. KG issued a mandatory public offer to buy the remaining shares of minority shareholders of Stollwerck AG for EUR 295.00 per share. Van Houten Beteiligungs AG & Co. KG has held 98.66% of the entire share capital and voting rights of Stollwerck AG since the expiration of the mandatory public offer. Van Houten Beteiligungs AG & Co. KG submitted a proposal to the remaining 1.34% minority shareholders at the ordinary general meeting of Stollwerck AG on April 30, 2003 to pay them cash compensation of EUR 295.00 per share so that the shares could be subsequently delisted.
